

CURB REPORTER

Continued from Page One

the results of their clean-up campaign . . . . Folks can have a lot of fun here without much expense. You take the matter of chess playing. When it was stated in this column that a man moved away because there was no one to play chess with him, a number of people have signified their interest in chess. There is the possibility of starting a chess club. Among those interested are R. F. Andrews of Landrum; Rev. George W. Hayward and J. S. Brown of Tryon; James P. Egerton and son, Nick, and also Bob Foster, Jr., of Mill Spring . . . . Tryon Town government are to be congratulated on getting several streets hardsurfaced before cold weather sets in. Streets hardsurfaced include Paolet in front of the new post office; Whitney avenue on Godshaw Hill; School street from the highway to school; Markham Road from Grady avenue to cemetery; Howard street hill in front of B. E. Samples. This work will benefit nearly every motor vehicle owner in town . . . .

At the Churches

Continued from Page One

11 a. m., morning prayer and sermon. Friday 3:15 p. m., Girls' Friendly Society.

Second Baptist: Rev. Carl Blythe, Pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m., Harley Burrell, Supt. Preaching Saturday at 7 p. m. Special service Sunday at 7 p. m. Youth for Christ program and evangelistic services 7:45 by Rev. Ed Thompson with special music and singing.

Rev. C. E. Scarborough, pastor of the Tryon First Baptist church, has returned from the Baptist State Convention which met in Charlotte. The convention meets next year in Raleigh.

Rev. Zeno Green of Saluda returned to his home last Friday from the Patton Memorial hospital in Hendersonville, where he had his tonsils removed.

In Asheville Wednesday

Charles Muench

who will conduct the Orchestre National of France at the Asheville City Auditorium Wednesday, Nov. 24, at 8:30, under the sponsorship of the Junior League. Tickets are on sale at Village Library, 32 Battery Park Avenue, Asheville.

Mr. Muench has been guest conductor for New York Philharmonic Symphony and major orchestras in Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Minneapolis. He will succeed Serge Koussevitsky as conductor of the Boston Orchestra.

✓ Your Chest get an X-Ray..Today!

Tuberculosis plays no favorites! In its early stages, TB usually has no outside symptoms. Only an X-ray tells you the "inside story"!

You'll feel a whole lot better if you know that your chest is okay . . . that neither you nor your family has TB.

Spend the little time it takes to be sure! It's the best investment you'll ever make!