TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1948

Weather Friday: High 49, low 28; Saturday high 50, low 20; Sunday high 52, low 41, rain .02.

... Tryon merchants are so generous in proportion to their ability to pay and are asked so often by so many people for so many causes that they have almost lost the enthusiasm to take the initiative in promoting things for their town benefit, for they know that pretty soon or later someone will be around soliciting. In most cities the matter of decorating the streets for Christmas is a merchant's and business men's problem, because decorations add to the attractions of the town and induce more people to trade. It helps to get them in the Christmas spirit. In Tryon when the announcement was made that donations were needed to pay for the decorations only one merchant responded. Fortunately, friends of the community who love Tryon so much that they want it decorated with those lighted Christmas trees are sending in donations from Minnesota to Florida. They will not have an opportunity to even see the trees but they like the idea. Some of the donors who have already given will not be here, but they want a part in the decorations. Mr. Merchant, we know you
