

MISS FRANCES HELMS PRESENTED IN CONCERT

Miss Frances Helms, lyric-dramatic soprano, was presented in a concert Tuesday evening, Dec. 7, in the auditorium of Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk, N. C. Her accompanist was Mrs. Elma Randall, college music director.

The program was as follows: "Morning", by Oley Speaks; "An Eriskay Love Lilt," by M. Kennedy-Fraser and Kenneth Macleod; "Mah Lindy Lou," by Lily Strickland; "Villanelle," by Eva Dell'Acqua; "Quando me'n vo soletta per la via"—from a Boheme, by Puccini; "Mattinata," by Ruggero Leoncavallo; "Romance"—from the Desert Song, by Sigmund Romberg; "Cantique de Noel," by Adam; and as a special request "The Star of Bethlehem," by Adams. Mrs. Randall played "The Raindrop Prelude", by F. Chopin.

Miss Helms sang the following encores: "I Love Life", by Mauna-Zucca; "Cherry Ripe", by Charles

Edward Horn, which she dedicated to her grandfather, Dr. R. D. Jennings; "White Christmas" by Irving Berlin; and "For You", by Burke, dedicated to her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. Edward Jennings.

Miss Helms is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claud H. Helms of Morganton. She received her musical education at Brenau College, Gainesville, Ga.; and also studied with Dr. Arthur Billings Hunt of New York City.

FOR SALE: Table loom, pre-war, custom made, never used, owner moved. Bargain at $10 for quick sale. Mrs. Sheldon P. Clark, Phone 189-W, P. O. Box 1071.—Advertisement tf.

J. B. Hester, Insurance Since 1905; W. M. Hester, Real Estate Since 1923.

HESTER REAL ESTATE & INSURANCE AGENCY

Phone No. 37, Tryon

CAROLINA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

COMMON STOCK

Price $27.00 Per Share

(Subject)

Prospectus Available From

McCARLEY & CO.

INVESTMENT SECURITIES

Ground Floor

Vanderbilt Hotel

Telephone 5671

ASHEVILLE, N. C.