

CURB REPORTER

Continued from Page One

would gladly give if someone would go around with a hat. You always give to everything that comes along. But this Trade Street decorations is a community proposition. Everybody seems to be as busy as you are and they can't afford to leave their business and work for the community. Your money is important, but more important is your spirit and enthusiasm, your eagerness to come forward, take the initiative and volunteer a donation on your own accord. That makes you a positive force in the community. Positive forces are the ones that accomplish things. We can't grow if we let George do everything. Money is important, but the spirit behind the money puts a flavor and enthusiasm into the work that can't be bought. That spirit is what makes Tryon different from so many towns much larger and with more possibilities.

Sunday's Charlotte Observer had a picture of Matt O'Shelds and the news about his election to the presidency of the Tryon Kiwanis Club. Mr. O'Shelds, a native of Spartanburg county, spent most of his life in Shelby and is the second Shelby man to become president of the Tryon Kiwanis Club, the other being Fred W. Blanton who since returned to Shelby and became president of the Shelby club.

Between sets... have a Coke

DRINK

Coca-Cola

Coca-Cola Bottling Company
Forest City, N. C.

Glenda Bradley, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bradley, is a patient at Charlotte Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Roy Dalton and daughter, Gloria, have gone to Detroit to join Mr. Dalton where they will make their home. Their 5-year-old son, Stephen will join them later.

Senator Burnett R. Maybank was married during the week-end to Mrs. Mary Randolph Pelzer Cecil, widow of the late Rear Admiral Charles P. Cecil.

FOR SALE: Tuxedo, 39 long, excellent condition. Sacrifice $20. Call DeHart, No. 14.—Adv. 13p.

There is still time this week to have Christmas Cards made of your home or your children. Richard D. Runkle, Photographer, (basement Dr. Derby's Office).—Adv. 13, 14p

RUG CLEANING TIME

RUGS CLEANED
RUGS REPAIRED
RUGS STORED
MOTH-PROOFED
RENOVATED

We also clean your rugs in your own home. Complete rug cleaning service. Our truck will come to Tryon every 10 days to pick up rugs, on the 1st and 15th.

Please call us before the 1st and 15th, so we can get your rugs in time.

Persian Renovating Company

76 Charlotte Street
ASHEVILLE, N. C.