

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JANUARY 10, 1949

Weather: Friday high 67, low 31; Saturday high 68, low 38; Sunday high 77, low 42. Just look at that weather report for January! But Chicago reports that the cold weather is moving eastward from a 42 below in Montana. Snow and rain moving into Texas. Tryon's low was one degree warmer than Los Angeles, Calif., Sunday. California fruit crops have been hit hard by the freeze . . . Dean Acheson succeeds General Marshall as Secretary of State and James E. Webb of North Carolina becomes Undersecretary of State . . . Beginning January 14th an intensive campaign will be waged all over the nation for funds with which to fight infantile paralysis and to help those stricken with the disease . . . There will be balls and contests of all kinds for the benefit of the polio sufferers. In Polk County contributions may be sent to Mrs. W. F. Sprague, Tryon, treasurer, or to The Bulletin office. For the past ten years all the money contributed in Polk County has gone directly to the infantile paralysis fund. Half of the amount went to national headquarters and the other half remained in Polk County to help local sufferers. All expenses of

Continued on Back Page

REPORT TO THE PEOPLE

The Trade Street Christmas Decoration Committee wishes to make the following report to the people to let them know how their money was spent.

We had five new strings of lights made this year, and bought 300 new bulbs, and hired four men to put up the trees and lights.

Labor	$ 48.30
New Light Strings	68.92
New Bulbs	55.00
Electricity	100.18

TOTAL	$272.40
Contributions this year	$156.60
Balance from last year	92.00

TOTAL	$248.60
-------	----------

There is a shortage of $23.80 in contributions. A number of people have promised donations and these will help make up the deficit.

We wish to thank all who had a part in this undertaking by donating money, time and good will.

Wofford Foster,
Chairman-Treas.

Horace Newman,
K. A. Bowen,
Seth M. Vining.

TWO FIRES

Tryon Volunteer Fire Department was called out twice during the week-end. The first call was to the home of Mrs. W. C. Bates where the tall grass was on fire in the neighborhood of her house. The second call was on Sunday to put out burning kudzu vines back of the Supreme Service Station.

Miss Mae Irene Flentye will be the guest speaker at Tryon Kiwanis Tuesday at 1 p. m.