

POLIO FUND UP TO $500

Additional contributions to the Polk County March of Dimes Campaign have brought the total to date to approximately $500 with $2,600 yet to be raised to reach the quota of $3,100. Mrs. F. W. Sprague, treasurer, reports new contributions from Mrs. Ollie Coleman, Mrs. C. M. Gottfried, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Hair, Mr. and Mrs. Seth M. Vining, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Laidler Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hill, the Misses Elsie and Margery Strong.

Donations may be sent to Mrs. Sprague or to The Bulletin office.

PRICE—PARKER

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin E. Parker Jr. have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Laura Hathaway Parker, to Mr. Edison Avery Price, on Saturday, January 15th, at Greenwich, Conn.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late James H. Perkins, former head of the National City Bank of New York and former owner of the Cotton Patch in Tryon.

Members of the bride's family have spent part of their vacations in Tryon for the past 10 years.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Ella Wilson of Cooper's Gap is a patient at St. Luke's hospital.

Patients discharged include Mrs. Herbert Rhodes and baby son, of Columbus; Mrs. Jacquelyn Kuhn of Tryon, and Mrs. Ozell Howard and baby son of Landrum.

Hall B. Miles Jr. of Durham will be the week-end guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seth M. Vining.

Have you selected your Valentines? A good assortment and all prices. Blue Ridge Weavers.

county, one year $4; in county $3. Subscription to The Bulletin, out of

COLUMBUS NEWS

By Mrs. J. A. Feagan.

The P.-T. A. met Thursday afternoon at Stearns school with a good number present. Mrs. McFarland, the president, presiding. The fifth grade had the largest number of parents present. After the customary business meeting, Miss Thompson, guest speaker, of Polk-Rutherford Health Unit, was introduced by Mrs. James Swain. Miss Thompson's talk was packed with good suggestions to mothers and teachers. After adjournment a social hour was enjoyed.

The Women of the Presbyterian church meet next Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 24, at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. W. W. Brazeal at her new home on the Landrum road. A study of China is to be given at this meeting, supervised by Mrs. Charley Ashley, secretary of foreign missions.

FOUND: Key on a shoe string. Owner may have it by paying for this advertisement.

FOR SALE: Hot Point Electric Range. Used less than one year. Perfect condition, too small for Lodge. $80. Mrs. T. E. Jervy, Melrose Lodge.—Adv. 21, 24, 25c

FOR RENT: Attractive six room furnished home close in. 3 bed rooms, 2 baths. Long lease. RICHARDSON & KARSTEN, Realtors.—Adv. 19, 20, 24.

New Post Card of Pearson Falls on sale at Blue Ridge Weavers for the benefit of Pearson Falls.

HOMES — FARMS BUILDING SITES

All real estate services, including rentals.

G. H. BRIDGEMAN & SON
Tel. Office 101 Res. 434-J