TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 2nd, 1949

Weather Tuesday: High 51, low 31 . . . The diplomatic war continues with Russia and America trying to line-up other countries on one side or the other. Communists take over Peiping, China. Slight relief seen in cold weather in west. Bulldozers, snow plows and other vehicles are opening roads. Memphis, Tenn., had a 7 over zero Tuesday, Bowling Green, Ky., had 3 above. Minnesota had 10 to 15 below . . . A Navy recruiting officer is in Landrum today at the post office . . . Betty Sturgis' new shop next door to former quarters is very attractive . . . a number of enthusiastic friends from Spartanburg, Charlotte and other places were among those who responded to the invitation to attend the opening last Friday. A number of friends served as models and refreshments were served to all who attended. . . . Stearns school is putting on the "funniest circus on earth" Saturday night, Feb. 5th, at 7:30 in the Stearns gym. It is the Donkey Basketball game in which local men will ride donkeys. . . . Several people have suggested that the door spring to the post office be removed until a weaker spring is secured. One fellow had suf-
