

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1949

Weather Monday: High 63, low 39 Hoover Board recommends complete overhaul of State Department, Social Security expansion is planned by Congressional leaders to bring in 20 million more people; rates to be raised to 1.5 cents In an address before the Tryon Rotary club Friday, J. T. Chiott, president of the Asheville Board of Realtors, denounced the Communistic rent control administration which is preventing the private investment in housing and the improvement of much present property which is getting delapidated because owners afford to repair it and get alley back Tryon Kiwanians will meet Thursday night at 6 o'clock at Missildine's Pharmacy and go in cars to Rutherfordton for a joint meet there at 7 o'clock. . . . Today is George Washington's birthday. Yesterday was Miss Irene Flentye's 70th birthday and a large number of friends, between 35 and 40, gave her a surprise party with birthday cakes, refreshments and gifts. In the Who's Who of Tryon and Polk County Miss Flentye ranks among the first for her services to the community in many ways. And there will be many other friends

Continued on Back Page

POLK COUNTY WOMAN KILLED IN ROAD MISHAP

Mrs. Millie Rollins Bradley, 69, was killed Monday at 11:30 a. m. when struck by an automobile while sweeping the walkway in front of her home near here.

A coroner's jury Monday night ordered Boyce Jackson, about 21, of Mill Spring held under $2,500 bond for appearance at the August term of Polk County Superior Court for grand jury investigation in connection with the death. The inquest was held at Columbus with Coroner James E. Johnson in charge.

Officers and witnesses said that the car allegedly driven by Jackson was traveling toward Tryon and that the vehicle went out of control on a curve approaching the dwelling.

Officers said tire marks were visible for 300 feet. Ed Mitchell, Negro, driver of a wagon and the only eye witness, said that he shouted at Mrs. Bradley and leaped from his wagon when he saw the car approaching.

Sheriff W. D. Hines, Deputy Ken Melton and State Highway Patrolman Jack D. Cabe investigated the mishap.

Mrs. Bradley, widow of Boney Bradley, was taken to St. Luke's Hospital here, but was pronounced dead on arrival.

Surviving are two half-brothers, Jake and William Rollins of Black Mountain and one half-sister, Mrs. Kay Allison of Thomasville.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Pacolet Baptist church in Lynn, with the Rev. Ralph Banning, officiating.

Continued on Back Page