TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 4TH, 1949

CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: High 64, low 32. . . Over 4,000 people were in Raleigh Thursday to ask the legislature for state aid in build- schools, get more and better eses and to pay more for better teachers. The census was that the people are willing to pay more for better education for their children. Those going from Tryon and Polk County included W. H. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Culberson, Gaden Corpening, Supt. Laxton Hamrick, Nelson Jackson III, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Rector, Mrs. Roger Shaffer . . . Today's Asheville Citizen states that the legislature granted a 20 per cent increase to teachers and state employees retroactive to October 1. The State Advisory commission wants to give $54 million less than the State Board's request for $220 million . . . Plans are about complete for the Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting at Sunnysdale for Tuesday night at 7:15. It will be home-town meeting with representatives from neighboring communities participating. The entertainment features will include Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn, Mrs. Nelson Jackson III, Mrs. H. B. Frank- enfield and assembly singing for music. Wm. Spivey and Fred Akin will give a minstrel skit. Short talks 3 to 4 minutes each will be given by Dr. A. V. Dye of Rotary, Matt O'Shields of Kiwanis, Mayor C. D. Stevens, past president of Chamber of Commerce, County Agent Paul Culberson, Ben E. Blackwell of Landrum, J. W. Gantt
