

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 8TH, 1949

Weather Monday: High 64, low 32. Winter came back again for an overnight visit . . . This is 4-H Club Week and County Agents Culberson and Carter are bringing forth the merits of the 4-H Club work by talks, displays, programs and a movie short at Tryon Theatre this week on Monday and Tuesday and two other days . . . Atlanta, Ga., is installing its second television station today . . . Everything is all set for the Chamber of Commerce dinner tonight with Rotary and Kiwanis at Sunnysdale at 7:15. Among the out of town Chamber of Commerce officials who will be guests are Hendersonville Vice-President W. A. Baxter and Manager P. M. Camak Jr.; Spartanburg's Manager Opie Shelton and Mrs. Shelton; Saluda Booster's Club President Wm. G. Egerton and Secretary J. H. Clippard; Columbus' Look Out Club President W. A. Burgess and Director J. W. Gantt; Landrum Ruritan President B. E. Blackwell and Director John G. Landrum Sr.; Asheville representative Dr. James G. McClure; Hickory Nut Gorge Officers William Hackett and Nor-

Continued on Back Page

Youth For Christ At Saluda, Saturday Night

The Polk County Youth for Christ rally will be held at the Saluda Presbyterian Church in Saluda, Saturday night at 7:30. Walter Trim, Bob Jones University student, will be the speaker. Special music will be the feature of the meeting. All the 'teen-agers of Saluda are invited.

Good Fellowship Club Banquet To Be Held Thursday Night

The Goodfellowship Club will hold their monthly banquet at Harmon Field on Thursday, March 10th, at 7:30, according to Secretary Monte Dedman.

The menu for the gathering will be planned by Chief of Police W. L. Roach.

Invitation cards have been mailed to members, and all members who wish to bring a guest should register him with the secretary at the banquet.

No definite program has been arranged, but a discussion of future plans and other business will be taken up during the evening.

To Speak In Saluda Sunday

Mrs. Frances Quarles, director of the Child Evangelism Classes, and prominent teacher of the First Presbyterian Church of Spartanburg, will speak to the combined classes of the Sunday school, Sunday morning at 10. This will be a very interesting meeting, and everyone is urged to be present. Hugh D. Pollard is pastor of the church, and will preach at the 11 o'clock service.

GIVE NOW TO THE RED CROSS