TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 18TH, 1949

Weather Thursday: High 71, low 32 . . . U. S. to arm Europe against Russian attacks . . . Chinese Reds stirring up trouble in Nanking . . . Lyday Morris, 52, is being held for fatal shooting of his brother-in-law, Chappell Morris, 56, in Transylvania County. . . . Sunday's Spartanburg Herald reported that Leslie Tillotson of Greer, S. C., went fishing at Lake Adger in Polk County last June 23rd and caught a 7 1/4 pound smallmouth bass. The fish has already won for him $150 in cash prizes in 8 Southern States and in another $100 worth of fishing tackle. If anybody asks you if there is any good fishing around here, that should be a good answer . . . Tonight hundreds of theatre goers and those interested in young people's activities will fill the Tryon school auditorium to see the High School Seniors' annual play directed by Miss Myrtle Baldwin. "Brother Goose" promises to be very entertaining . . . These are busy days in Tryon. Tryon Theatre was filled Thursday night to see the Ballenger Style Show with 25 local models displaying the suits, dresses, coats, etc., sold by the company . . . Jean West of Asheville is showing for the last time
