

CURB REPORTER

Continued from Page One

tive in Decatur. Her parents operated the Betsy Bird Antique Shop in Tryon years ago . . . Mrs. Bertha Bowlby's nephew Herman Kiger of the Winston-Salem Boy Scout Troop No. 9, is probably the outstanding Boy Scout in North Carolina. He is an Eagle Scout. During Boy Scout week last month he was made mayor of Winston-Salem. He has just received the Junior Citizenship Award given by the Boys Clubs of America and will be given a trip to New York and a two week's vacation at Red Ryder Ranch, Pagosa Springs, Col. He also received the John Brown Award for greatest advancement in Scouting. He is a student at Reynolds High School and works part time in addition to his extra curricular activities. . . .

LIBBY'S LINES

Tryon is getting to be a duplicate center with players from Spartanburg, Asheville and Charlotte winning here. Winners of Thursday's tournament held at the Congregational church house were, North-South, first, Miss Gladys Lyles and Miss Mary Anderson of Spartanburg; second, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Crawford of Asheville; East-West, first, Mrs. Ernest Halstead and C. E. Harris of Spartanburg; second, Mrs. Kate Williamson and R. R. Benham. Last week's 10 tables is an indication of the interest carried on by the Tryon and visiting bridge players since the first duplicate bridge tournament was put on at the Country Club almost two years ago by Jimmy Jackson and several others. Even more tables are expected this Thursday as this week's tournament is the master point tournament.

Tryon horses won several ribbons in the Horse Show at Camden Saturday. In the Suitable to Become Hunters class. "Out of Bounds" owned and ridden by Mrs. James A. Blackwood, won second place; "Captain Shawl" owned and ridden by Arthur Reynolds, won third; "Scarlet", owned and ridden by Mrs. Blackwood, won fourth.

"Scarlet" also won a fourth in the Green Hunters class.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Phipps of New York are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn at Little Orchard.

Friday's Asheville Times featured Margaret Culkin Banning in its Birthday column. Her birthday is the 18th of March. Several days ago The Asheville Citizen had a brief article on World Peace written by Mrs. Banning under the sponsorship of the United World Federalists and the introduction stated that she spent part of each year at her Tryon home. Mrs. Banning said women want peace and law and order for the whole world and believe it is sible.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Blackwood have as guests, Mrs. Charles Moser and daughter, Lee of Queens-town, N. J.

Permanent Wave

$3.50

LILLIAN BEAUTY SHOP

Phone 69

(Upstairs over Ballenger's)

Electric Welding, Brazing and Blacksmithing—

ROY STATION

SALUDA, N. C.

On highway near Railroad
Station—Phone 2896

INSURANCE

Life, Health, Accident
Hospitalization, and Auto
See or Phone 200-M

CARL FORTNER

LISTINGS WANTED

To sell and rent; city or farm property.

TRYON REAL ESTATE
COSTA, BROWN, FLYNN

Telephone 9, Tryon