

John T. Smith of High Point visited relatives in Tryon and Columbus during the Easter holidays.

A. E. Norville, formerly of Tryon, now attending the Dell School of Medical Technology in Asheville, is recovering from a broken leg in Moore General Hospital, Swannanoa. His son is recovering from pneumonia, his second bout with this illness this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bonneli Jr. nee Alice Trowbridge, and daughter, Clare, of Ivoryton, Conn., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Trowbridge in the Hunt-Country.

Permanent Wave

$3.50

LILLIAN BEAUTY SHOP

Phone 69

(Upstairs over Ballenger's)

KEETER'S SANDING CO.

We Make Old Floors Look
New Again!

No job too small or too large.
Estimates Cheerfully Given

Tel 6633 Rutherfordton, N. C.

TRYON THEATRE

THURSDAY NIGHT, APRIL 21st

On Stage In Person:

The Dixie Play Boys

Direct from the

CAROLINA BARN DANCE

- Good Clean Comedy.
- Fun and Music for All.

Also on the Screen:

Peggy Knudsen, Lynne Roberts in

Trouble Preferred

ADMISSION: Adults 50c; Children 25c.