TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, AUGUST 9TH, 1949

Weather Monday: High 88, low 63 . . . "Mother Was A Freshman" delighted a packed house Monday at Tryon Theatre. It's in technicolor starring Loretta Young as the mother and Van Johnson as the professor . . . There's something new in the magic Lilly Dache Thirsty Kerchief at the Blue Ridge Weavers. Resembles an attractive bonnet. Women put it on their heads after a hair wash and they can go about their work or shopping. In the meantime the bonnet soaks up the water and dries the hair . . . Charles J. Parker, private secretary to Governor Scott has been appointed director of the State News Bureau succeeding Bill Larpe. Marshall is a former Raleigh newspaper man who directed the school and road bonds campaign in June . . . Golf Pro Roy Tinsley took a group of Tryon golfers to Charlotte Sunday to have them participate in the Carolina Golf Association one day tournament. Mr. Tinsley was formerly manager of the Charlotte Country Club and received a hearty welcome from many friends. Those going from Tryon were W. W. Lord, W. M. Spivey, who played with some Charlotte players; and Clarence Edwards. Bud Turner, Junior
