Hanahan Property Purchased

Captain and Mrs. Benjamin Tate Perlman have purchased the Hanahan property in Pacolet Hills and will move here from California in the early autumn. Sale through Richardson & Karsten, Realtors. Capt. Perlman is a retired naval officer and during the Guadalcanal campaign was in command of the hospital ship "Solace" which evacuated wounded from the forward area to the naval hospitals in New Zealand.

Mrs. James Gathings and daughter, Betsy, have returned to their home at Lewisburg, Pa., after a visit in Landrum with Mrs. Gathings' mother, Mrs. Bessie Daniel. Mrs. Daniel accompanied them to Lewisburg which is 9 miles from Sunbury, Pa., where Mrs. C. W. Kittrell is a patient with a broken leg as the result of a fall while riding the train to Meadville, Pa., to visit her son, John Kittrell, and family. Mrs. Daniel and the Gathings have been over to see Mrs. Kittrell and report that she is resting comfortably and will be at Sunbury, Pa., Community Hospital at least a week longer. She will then be taken to a hospital at Meadville for about a month.
