

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy. TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1949

Weather Wednesday: High 90, low 64 Tryon's grocery stores are the best in the nation, taken as a whole, and for size of community. Ballew's Grocery has installed a modern vegetable refrigerator. Mr. Ballew raises some of his produce. Farthing & Swann were demonstrating a new product the other day which reminded me of my favorite. Peanut butter and honey mixed with butter. Learned it from Jim Kinloch. It's delicious. So is this new sweet wafer flavored with peanut butter . . . Tonight is bridge night at the Congregational church house . . . Paul A. Reid, Raleigh, controller for the State Board of Education, has been elected president of Western Carolina State Teachers College, Cullowhee Congratulations to Earl Carter and his 4-H Club livestock judging team which won third place in the State at Raleigh last week No wonder Polk County 4-H Club boys and girls win so many first prizes in the calf shows of Western North Carolina. They not only buy and raise good stock, but they know their business. The starting of the 4-H Club calf chain is one of the finest things Kiwanis, Rotary and the Chamber of Commerce have ever done . . .

Continued on Back Page

Rev. Ernest Barber, Preacher In Tryon Sunday Morning

Rev. Ernest L. Barber, executive secretary of the Southwest Georgia Presbytery, will be the guest preacher at the 11 o'clock service of the Tryon Presbyterian Church, according to an announcement by the pastor, Rev. George W. Hayward.

Mr. Barber is a native of Polk County and is a brother of Ed Barber and Minter Barber of Tryon.

Professor of the Blind At Rotary Club Friday

Dr. Samuel M. Lawton, professor at Cedar Spring School for the Blind, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Rotary Club on Friday. The program will be in charge of Nelson Jackson, III.

Dr. Lawton has been blind all his life, is an author and speaker of note and has made a study of overcoming handicaps. He is an authority on the lowland Negro and of his spiritual and home life.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to St. Luke's Hospital include Mrs. Alice P. Fulton, Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. Henry Searcy, Columbus; Miss June Buekner, Lynn; Miss Margaret Bomar, Landrum and Joe Derby, Tryon.

Patients discharged include Mrs. William Holbert and baby daughter, R-1, Tryon; Mrs. William M. Shipman, R-2, Landrum; Mrs. Lindsey Rhodes and baby son, Saluda; Mrs. John C. Gibson, Columbus; Charlotte Blackwell, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blackwell and Frances Cash (colored), Tryon.