

MEET YOUR FRIENDS AT "THE PRESCRIPTION STORE"
OWEN'S PHARMACY. Phone 202. WALGREEN AGENCY.

Ben H. Douglas arrived by plane Thursday afternoon from Albany, N. Y., for a visit with Mrs. Douglas, nee Mary Palmer and their new baby son. Mr. Douglas will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Palmer while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leighton have returned to their home in Tryon after a month's vacation in Michigan, Wisconsin and other points.

It is reported that the aged Civil War veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic voted at their recent convention not to meet again as they are too old to attend. Mrs. A. W. Brintnall's grandfather, Rev. Wm. J. Rutledge, was a chaplain in the Civil War and one of the originators of the G.A.R.

Rev. George W. Hayward, J. S. Kell and J. Frank Gallimore will leave Monday for Barium Springs to attend the North Carolina Presbyterian Synod to be held September 19, 20, 21, 22.

LOST: 1 Brown Jacket. Please notify Thema Rice or call 251-W. REWARD.—Adv. p.

A 5-ROOM APARTMENT for rent to some couple. Boilt-in cabinets in bath room and kitchen. Rooms newly painted. Conveniently located. Can be seen after 4 o'clock. Mrs. James Swain, Columbus.—Adv. 16, 19p.

LAND
SURVEYING SERVICE

H. B. Frankenfield Jr.

Phones: Off 150; res 514
Registered Surveyor
Tryon, N. C.

FOR SALE: Seven acre cleared tract in city limits of Columbus on mail road, has a commanding view. This is the ideal location for a retired couple to carry on small scale garden and orchard in an attractive community with fine all year climate. City water and low taxes. A rare offering at $2,650. FOR SALE, vacant lot on main street of Columbus, about 300 feet sq., heavily wooded. This property will appeal as a homesite to persons desiring to live in the country and yet have urban advantages including city water, in a fine all year climate. Would be desirable for South Carolina business man or woman who prefer to live close to a community. Attractively priced at $850. Phone E. H. Gibbs, 4001-J, or Walter Knoop, 311-M.—Advertisement 16, 19.

Attractive Pompeian green metal terrace table. Flower bracket under glass top and matching chairs. Perfect condition. Half price, $30. Telephone 174-J.—Adv. 16, 19.

RENT A NEW CAR

Ready for you to drive when you arrive

U-DRIVE-IT SYSTEM

141 North Liberty Street

Telephone No. 96

SPARTANBURG, S. C.