

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 22—No. 188) TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOV. 16, 1949

Weather Tuesday: High 67, low 38. Such beautiful weather now with blue skies and lots of sunshine. Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Kimberly who have just returned from a month's stay in California enjoyed the trip but hated to miss the good weather in Tryon . . . The Vernon Smiths had some guests the other day who are moving from New York to California. They remarked about how wonderful the weather was here. Mr. Smith said, "Yes, but this is unusual. It is usually better." . . . James F. Roosevelt elder son of the late Franklin, is a candidate for governor of California . . . The papers are carrying pictures of Mrs. Carleton S. Ardley in the new automobile Vice-President Barkley gave her as a wedding present . . . All this afternoon the Polk County Wildlife Club will hold a field meet at Harmon Field beginning at 1 o'clock. Rifle and trap shooting will be enjoyed. 50 turkeys will be awarded as prizes. The public is invited to see this, and to eat with the members at a picnic supper for the price of the meal only.

Tryon's last football game of the season will be played at Harmon Field Friday at 3:15. Ben Lippen versus Tryon Tigers.

Rutherfordton Lawyer Is Speaker At Public Forum Here Tuesday Night

Hon. Woodrow Jones, legislator and civic leader of Rutherfordton, addressed the public meeting sponsored by the Tryon Chamber of Commerce National Affairs Committee, Tuesday night at 8, at Tryon school auditorium.

Mr. Jones outlined the history of Communism beginning with Karl Marx in Germany, and traced its development to its present powerful stage in Russia headed by Joseph Stalin. Then he compared life under Communism with life under the American Democratic form of government. He emphasized the dangers of being misled by Communist front organizations and said that if all people would practice the principles of Christianity and teach the love of liberty and home life that we would not have to fear any other ism.

A question and answer period followed the address and various members in the audience took part.

Chairman C. D. Stevens of the Chamber of Commerce committee presided and introduced the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Becker of New York and Redding, Conn., enroute to Florida, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Saumenig of Warrior Mountain Road. Mr. Becker is an engineer-executive of Ebasco, a subsidiary of Electric Bond & Share Co., one of the large public utility companies with operations scattered throughout the country.

Mrs. E. G. Metcalf has returned from Pensacola, Fla. where she visited her son, T'Sgt. Jack Metcalf.