

Negro Scouts Advanced

The Negro Scouts of Tryon held their Court of Honor Monday night at the colored school. Negro Scout Executive James Adams of Gastonia was in charge of the meeting. Serving on the court were William Hannon, J. T. Foster, James Bryan, and Prof. W. H. Green.

Scouts advanced were Savannah Johnson to tenderfoot; Herman Hannon, Frank and Radolph Miller to second class; James Epps to star rank. Hugh Wood received the merit badge for dog care.

Billy Baker, Cary Page and Vance McCown have arrived home from Sewanee Military Academy for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hickox of Bedford, N. Y., have returned to Tryon for the winter and are guests at Oak Hall.

Mrs. H. Lan Moore has gone to Mt. Kisco, N. Y., to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Morgan Warner.

Frank Page of Greensboro is spending the holidays with his son, Cary Page, and family at Pleasant Valley.

LOST: Light brown dog. No collar. Telephone 205, Virginia Jackson.—Adv. 20, 21p

Practically New Hotpoint Electric Range for sale. Cost $300. will take half price, $150. Apply to Tryon Real Estate, Tel. 9.—Advertisement 20, 21c.

We have just received from England Hand Block Print Handkerchiefs—all silk. Very attractive for men or women. Priced, due to the devalued pound, $5. The Tack Shop, Tryon, N. C.—Advertisement 21, 21, 22.

Wm. M. SPIVEY

Complete INSURANCE Coverage

OVER A&P STORE

Tryon, N. C. Telephone 53

Do you know you can buy ladies hats for half price at the Exclusive Ladies Shop?

No, I did not know that such millinery could be bought at half price. This perhaps was done to help Santa get his Santa Wagon loaded with the right goods at the right time. Also some dresses going two for the price of one.

Well, I did not know these values were on but I will go around to this store and find out. I do know that all roads lead to Rhodes, the Exclusive Ladies Shop. So I will go to see for myself as there are lots of nice merchandise for Santa at the Exclusive Ladies Shoppe.