

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 22—No. 218 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 28, 1949

Oak Hall Hotel will have its usual Thursday night steak supper as advertised in today's Bulletin but will not have the Sunday night buffet supper. This is done to give the cooks and waiters part of the New Year holiday. The ad was already printed when notice of the change was received. Today is nice for the Riding & Hunt Club picnic and contests at the Cary Page place, Pleasant Valley Farm. . . The Duke and Duchess of Windsor have arrived in New York for an extended visit before going to their ranch in Canada. . . Rita Hayworth, wife of Aly Khan, is mother of a daughter born last night in Switzerland. . . United States of Indonesia became a free country with loose Dutch connections Tuesday. . . Street car strike ends in Cleveland, O., as strikers obey court order. . . The Tryon Duplicate Bridge tournament will be held Thursday night at the Congregational church house. . . Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Griffin and three children escaped injury Sunday morning when their abandoned car was hit by a Southern railway train at the Hendersonville 5th Ave., east crossing. . . .

AT KIWANIS TUESDAY

Robert H. Millikin gave a talk on the importance of adequate wiring at the Kiwanis Club on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel. Mr. Millikin pointed out some of the dangers of inadequate wiring which resulted in fires that destroyed homes, and burned up electric motors. He exhibited various samples of wiring for different jobs and the proper fuse for each job.

Guests at the meeting included Kiwanis Lieut.-Gov. J. E. Saltz of St. Petersburg, Fla., who has a perfect attendance record of 18 years; and Norman Miller of Hendersonville who has a perfect attendance record of 8 years. Governor Saltz brought greetings from the St. Petersburg club and also told of his boyhood days in the mountains of North Carolina where he thought he would get to see some snow and maybe go on a sleigh ride during the holidays. He said this sunshine and warm weather in Tryon was too monotonous for him.

Freedom Foundation Winner To Address Lanier Club

Opie Lee Shelton, manager of the Spartanburg Chamber of Commerce will be the guest speaker at the January 5th meeting of the Lanier Club. His subject will be "Preserving the American Way of Life."

Former President Herbert Hoover, the Hon. James F. Byrnes and Mr. Shelton were three Americans to earn the 1949 award for outstanding contribution to the cause of individual freedom.

The meeting will be at the Congregational church house at 3:30. The public is invited.