

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 23—No. 116) TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 14TH, 1950

Weather Thursday: High 81, low 66, rain .20 . . . Chairman Roy T. Baisden of the Polk County Draft Board is looking for office space for the draft board. Application forms are at The Bulletin office for anyone interested in renting space. A clerk with civil service training is also needed for 20 hours a week. . . . A lot of people have been singing praises for the Tryon Police Force who help the traffic problem at the intersection in front of Missildine's. Sometimes when the red light holds a string of cars from Missildine's to the Esso Station, policemen will wave the cars through the red light to relieve the congestion. That is appreciated, because most of the time the traffic is lighter crossing the railroad. . . . One of the things Charlie Lynch is trying to figure out is how to help motorists parked in front of Exclusive Ladies Shop, Foodland and on up the street, who try to back out and can't because of a continuous line of cars held up by the red light. Something for traffic officials to consider. You have to get in such situations often enough to appreciate the other fellow's point of view. They say you'd never know how an orange tastes unless you taste one . . . . Presi-
