(Vol. 23—No. 117) TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JULY 17TH, 1950

Weather: Friday: High 80, low 65, rain .13; Saturday high 81, low 64, rain .44; Sunday high 80, low 66, rain .66. . . "Saint or Sinner" by Mrs. A. W. Brintnall was a short story for adults and not for children. It received honorable mention in the Charlotte Writer's Club contest. Mrs. Brintnall's delightful story to the children at the story hour Thursday won first place in the hearts of the youngsters. . . Libby Vining has accepted the invitation to play in the Annual Invitation Golf Tournament at Linville, N. C., this week, 18th through 22nd. . . Tryon Swans Club will meet Tuesday at 1 o'clock at Oak Hall hotel. . . Contributions are still needed for the Artificial Breeding Program in Polk County. Checks may be sent to the Chamber of Commerce or Bulletin Office. The Piedmont Fair Association of Spartanburg thought so much of the program that they sent $25 to help promote the work. It doesn't help much to give a 4-H Club member a purebred calf and then have it bred to inferior stock. In order to keep up the good work and build better dairy stock in Polk County it is necessary to have a good breeding program. . . . The rains came
