

Congressman Bulwinkle Home

Congressman A. L. Bulwinkle who was dismissed from the U. S. Naval Hospital last week, is now at his Gastonia home and is opening an office there where he will be closer to the people of his district and at the same time carry on his work in Washington through his secretary, Miss Irene Whisnant. In Gastonia he will be assisted by his son, Maj. Lewis Bulwinkle and Myles Haynes of Cliffside, N. C. a graduate of the University of North Carolina whose law studies at George Washington University were interrupted recently by the death of his father, M. C. Haynes.

Mr Haynes was in Polk County Friday on business and stated that Congressman Bulwinkle wishes to let all the people know that he is in Gastonia and can serve them regarding congressional matters.

Monte Dedman, United Press correspondent, and forman of The Tryon Daily Bulletin and Polk County News, Mrs. Monte Dedman and their children, Bobby, Monte Jr., and Elaine; Miss Alice Marie Wilson, Mrs. R. L. Wilson and Mrs. W. C. Dedman, left this morning for the beach where they will spend their vacation.

Pfc. Robert Kuykendall, (paratrooper), stationed at Ft. Bragg, N. C. was home on brief furlough during the week-end with his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Kuykendall, and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Archie Ellis and sons Richard and John have returned to Salisbury after a visit with Mrs. Ellis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Avant.

Ralph C. Erskine was in Chicago on business last week.

Mrs. E. C. Andrews has as guest her daughter, Mrs. Ed Wagner nee Kathleen Andrews, and son Jack, of Raleigh while Mr. Wagner is in Chicago; and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Rhyne, nee Betty Lee Andrews, of Lincoln ton.
