

LANDRUM NEWS

By Margaret H. Bomar.

Mrs. Fred Ellis and children, Barbara, Maybeth and Frances, returned to their home in Chapel Hill last week after spending the summer with Mrs. Ellis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Landrum.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Copeland had as their guest last week-end, Miss Mildred Watson of Charlotte.

Mrs. Bessie Daniel, Floyd and Miss Addie Daniel motored to High Point Sunday where Miss Daniel will resume her teaching in the city schools. Mrs. Daniel and Floyd returned to Gastonia to spend a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daniel.

Miss Lucile Sheehan spent the week-end in Jacksonville, Fla.

Miss Alma Daniel returned to Anderson this week to begin her teaching in the city schools.

Mrs. Nelle Petty is visiting her son, W. J. Petty in New Orleans, La.

Miss Abby Gwathmey of Richmond, Va., who has been the guest for the past week of Mrs. E. O. Gilmore and Miss Margaret Bomar, left Wednesday for Laurens, S. C., for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Smith, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Gilmore and Miss Bomar.

Miss May Plumley, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Louis Reneau, returned Monday to resume her teaching in the city schools of Whitmire, S. C.

Miss Maize, Rudolph and Thornwell Earle had as their guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ives of Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binghiemer and small daughter, Catherine of Burlington, N. C.

Mrs. Nannie Smith of Green's Creek is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ella Wilson this week.

Among those who are leaving this week for college are Joseph Lee Jr., A. G. Jr., and Jerry Dempsey and Jack Christopher to Clemson, Adele Bedenbaugh to Newberry College, Garson Durham to Wofford and Edwin Copeland to Berea College, Ky.

DAIRY BULLETINS—5c each.

STONY KNOLL NEWS

By Franklin Davenport.

Sunday morning services were very impressive. There were two candidates baptized at the altar. Four are to be taken to the pool for baptism on the second Sunday morning.

Visitors at the morning services included Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Edgerton, Ben Russel, and Mrs. Ella Watson of Bostic, and Mrs. Ella Wallace of Shelby.

The anniversary service at the Library was well attended. People from throughout the county Rutherfordton, Shelby Spindale, Bostic, Landrum, S. C., were present.

During the week Mr. and Mrs. Clark Moore of Tryon, Mr. and Mrs. James Carson and William of Black Mountain visited friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Lelia Lytle and family of Asheville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jetty on Sunday.

WET WEATHER

REQUIRES

GOOD SHOES

and

DRY SHOES

Now is the time to have those good old shoes repaired for frequent changes to prevent damp feet and colds.

We also have an attractive line of

NEW SHOES

AND ACCESSORIES

TRYON SHOE HOSPITAL

Tryon, North Carolina