

Presbyterians Get Organ

The Tryon Presbyterian Church has installed a new Wurlitzer electronic organ which will be played Sunday morning for its first church service. Rev. George W. Hayward is the pastor of the church.

The men of the Presbyterian churches of Tryon, Saluda, Columbus and Landrum will meet Friday night at the Tryon church to discuss plans for improving the property and equipment of the churches in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius E. Sayre who have been spending a month at the Sayre-Canfield cottage, Douglas, Michigan, are on their way home and will arrive in Tryon about October 1. Mr. Sayre is treasurer of St. Luke's Hospital and while enroute home expects to attend the 52nd annual convention of hospitals of the American Hospital Association which meets in Atlantic City, September 19th. The Sayres will visit their son in New Canaan, Conn., for a few days before starting home.

C. N. Brown, of the Safe-Way Stores, Front Royal, Va., formerly with the Tryon A&P Market for five years, is in Tryon and Hendersonville for his vacation. His wife and son, Don, accompanied him.

Mrs. Wayne V. O'Neil has returned from a visit with her daughter Mrs. A. T. Banning, and family at Pittsburgh, Pa., and with her sons, James E. and Wayne and families at Chesterfield, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Ramsey are leaving today for their vacation in Ohio, New Jersey and other points in the East.

Rev. George W. Hayward and Frank Gallimore of Tryon and Hugh Pollard of Saluda Presbyterian Church attended the meeting of North Carolina State Presbyterian Synod in Charlotte this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Feder have returned to their home in Tryon after spending the summer in Hadley, N. Y.
