

COLUMBUS TOPS LANDRUM, 7-4

James Edwards scattered 7 hits effectively to give Columbus a 7-4 victory over Landrum here Saturday afternoon in the finals play-off of the Palmetto League.

Edwards paced his team at the plate with 4 for 4 including a triple, double and 2 singles. Secondbaseman Hardin connected with 3 for 4 to spark the losers.

The 3-best-of-5 series is tied at 2-all.—Spartanburg Herald.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS HONOR BULWINKLE

At the regular meeting of the Young Democratic Club of Rutherford County, held the second day of September, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

It is with sincere regret that we learn of the passing of Hon. A. L. Bulwinkle. We, the Young Democrats of Rutherford County, feel the loss of our distinguished leader and statesman, who has served our state and nation magnificently as lawyer, churchman, soldier, and congressman for so many years. We deeply feel the loss of such a distinguished public servant.—The Rutherford Country News.
