(Vol. 23—No. 176) TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 11th, 1950

Weather Tuesday: High 76, low 45 . . . ZORO is coming this week at Tryon Theatre, according to Manager R. E. Brantley, who stated after The Bulletin was printed yesterday that he had a telephone call from Charlotte which said that Dr. Cameron Zoro, who didn't think he could come to Tryon this week, has made arrangements to make the trip in person, and will be on the Tryon Theatre stage for the late show Saturday at 11 p. m. The adv't. states that inhuman creatures from the lower world, "Terrors of the Unknown" including the only ghost with "Hex" appeal; and the beautiful Lady Godiva in all fier unnatural glory will materialize on the stage as well as headless men and the living dead. . . . President Matt O'Shields of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce is inviting all artists of the community who are interested in Tryon Chamber of Commerce having an interesting letterhead for its stationery to submit samples of drawings to Elbert H. Arledge, Printer, and a copy will select the one thought best to represent Tryon most appropriately . . . A lot of people are interested in Tryon having the best of things that is appropriate for the community. Mrs. John Harvey, Chicago, writes
