Burglars In Service Station Do $500 Damage, Loss

A burglar or burglars entered the Tryon Texaco Service Station Friday morning about 2 o'clock and did about $500 damage, according to Manager R. B. Scruggs. The place was entered by breaking the washroom window, climbing in. The electric clock was stopped around 2 a. m., showing that the electric light was put out at that time. The safe in the station was opened with a hammer and chisel. The cash register was not touched. Mr. Scruggs estimated the damage to safe and stolen money and equipment to be about $500. No clues have been reported.

Wool production this year in North Carolina is up 31 per cent over 1949.
