Sketches of Polk History To Be Presented Friday Night

Formal presentation of "Sketches of Polk County History" will be held Friday in the Columbus Courthouse at 7:30 p. m., it was announced by the Polk County Historical Commission Tuesday.

The program will include the invocation by the Rev. LeRoy D. Lepard; "America," by the audience, led by James P. Egerton; remarks of the author of the "Sketches of Polk County History" by Sadie Smathers Patton; "Old North State" by the audience; an address by Dr. C. C. Crittenden, director of the Department of Archives and History, Raleigh.

The presentation of the first copy of the history, autographed by the author will be given to Robert Earley Brantley, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners by John Henry Gibbs, co-chairman Historical Commission.

Following ceremonies an informal reception, with refreshments, will be held in the lobbies of the court house.

The Polk County Historical Commission is composed of Carroll P. Rogers, chairman; John Henry Gibbs, co-chairman; R. H. Brady, John G. Landrum Jr., J. R. Trowbridge and Seth M. Vining.

Original Allied Nations Flags Fly Here Tuesday

Flags of the original Allied Nations, except Russia, were flying Tuesday, Oct. 24, United Nations Day, at Dogwood, home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Trowbridge in the Hunting Country. Mrs. Trowbridge made these flags and others that were presented to the Town of Tryon and to the school.

Weather Tuesday: High 76, low 56, rain .41 This warm weather is exasperating. Things will start growing again if it keeps up. The mountain foliage is beautiful in all the fall colors . . . Not many communities could show individual flags of the United Nations as well as the official United Nations flag on Tuesday. H. M. Guilbert at the Toy House has been displaying his every day for weeks, and Tuesday the individual flags made a pretty sight of beautiful colors reflecting the sunlight at the Trowbridge home in the Hunting Country . . . Remember the history book meeting Friday night at 7:30 at the Court House. Everybody invited, and Dr. C. C. Crittenden, the state's director, will be the chief speaker . . . Spartanburg Herald reports David McDonald in General Hospital . . . Political meetings all over the county are being well attended, showed renewed interest in our governmental affairs . . . The Democrats are giving a free barbecue and rally at Harmon Field Saturday night beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Hon. Woodrow Jones, the nominee for Congress, will be among the speakers . . . Miss Mary Ann Morris, St. Genevieve-of-the-Pines; Carroll Brady, Ligon Flynn and Tom Moore of State
