

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. See M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 23—No. 197) TRYON, N. C. WED. NOV. 8TH, 1950

BONNIE RAINES

Mrs. Bonnie Stiles Raines, 41, died at 2:10 p. m., Tuesday in a Spartanburg hospital after 15 months illness.

She was born and reared in Swain County, N. C., the daughter of Mrs. Rosetta Stevenson Stiles of Tryon and the late John W. Stiles.

Surviving besides the mother are her husband; Richard C. Raines; 3 sons, J. T., Douglas and Ray Raines, all of Beaumont; 2 daughters, Misses Naomi and Charleen Raines, both of Beaumont; a brother, William L. Stiles of Fort Bragg, N. C.; 3 sisters, Mrs. Mary Clement and Mrs. Omia Parker, both of Lynn, and Mrs. Alice Kuykendall of Tryon.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, the hour to be announced by the Petty Funeral Home in Landrum.—Spartanburg Herald.

Weather Tuesday: High 74. low 34 . . . For the first time in many years returns from the local election are not available to print. Chairman B. E. Samples of the election board, was out early this morning trying to verify the reports which indicate that all Democratic candidates in county won by a big majority. Radios report some Republican gains elsewhere in the nation including the return of Senator Taft of Ohio and Governor Dewey in New York. . . . Polk County Wildlife Club will meet Tuesday, November 14, at 7:30 in Mill Spring school . . . W.O.W. Blue Ridge Camp No. 186 will meet November 9th at the lodge in Columbus . . . Miss Mary Ann Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan H. Morris, made the Dean's list again at St. Genevieve-of-the-Pines in Asheville. . . The traffic jam in front of the post office is now about as bad as Trade Street and the way people back out in all directions into Chestnut Street up Oak Hall hill and down toward the depot, and into Dr. Preston's driveway and even turn around in the middle of the street; it results in many smashed fenders, say observers. . . Millikin Electric has moved from Pacolet Street to Second Street in order to get more room . . .

-----Continued on Back Page-----

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. J. D. Turner and baby son have returned home to R-1, Campobello, S. C., from St. Luke's Hospital. New patients include Mrs. Salome Newman and Thomas P. Hipps Jr., of Saluda.

Recent arrivals at Thousand Pines Inn include Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Griswold, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. Homer Clark, Greenwich, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Woodruff, Auburn, N. Y.; Mrs. Geo. Griswold, Old Lyme, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs Patton, Greenville, S. C.

The Department of Agriculture has announced that there will be no marketing quotas of acreage allotments on the 1951 cotton crop.