

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 23—No. 198) TRYON, N. C.. THURSDAY, NOV. 9TH, 1950

Weather Wednesday: High 73, low 44 . . . Tuesday's Spartanburg Herald had a picture of the 1900 Wofford College graduating class and included C. P. Rogers of Tryon . . . Have you ever seen a lamp full of delicious home-made jams, etc? No, neither have we, but an ad of the Red Bird Associates in today's Bulletin says so. The error was caught, too late to correct in the ad. "Lamps" should have been "hampers"—hampers of jams, preserves, etc., just one of those things that happen in a busy newspaper office. . . . Homecoming football game Friday afternoon at Harmon Field. . . . Duplicate bridge tournament tonight at Congregational church house . . . News has been received in Tryon by Col. Arthur Smith of the death on Tuesday of his brother-in-law Whitwell Beatson, in Arlington County, Va., near Washington, D. C. Funeral services are being held today in Arlington. Mr. Beatson was 71, a native of Tryon, and husband of the former Miss Carolyn Smith, daughter of Capt. George Smith of Tryon. Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Lieut. Whitwell Jr., and Stewart Beatson. The Beatsons have been in the Washington area since World War 1 when he was with the Y. M. C. A. He was with the District

-----Continued on Back Page-----

PANTHER BREAKS PRECEDENT TUESDAY

No Democratic candidate for sheriff has ever succeeded another Democrat sheriff in Polk County in over a quarter of a century, until Loyd Panther was elected to succeed W. D. Hines, the present Democrat sheriff. Hines' predecessor was Ed Newman, a Republican, who succeeded W. Y. Wilkins, a Democrat, who followed W. D. Westbrook, a Republican. Westbrook succeeded R. F. McFarland, a Democrat, who defeated G. L. Thompson, a Republican, who had succeeded Frank Jackson, a Democrat, elected in 1922.

Panther, the new sheriff-elect, is a former chief petty officer in the Navy and since his retirement has been active in the American Legion; Masonic order, Lions Club and other civic affairs.

PARADE HERE FRIDAY

The Tryon school students led by their cheer leaders will have a parade Friday on Trade Street at 2 p. m., prior to the Homecoming football game at Harmon Field with Mars Hill. The Homecoming Queen will be crowned during the half time.

NOTED LECTURER HERE

Men's Club of the Church of the Holy Cross has arranged to sponsor a series of 10 lectures by Dr. George Farrand Taylor to be given fortnightly at the Episcopal Parish House. The first lecture will be Tuesday night, Nov. 21, at 8.

U. S. per capita consumption of food in 1950 is expected to be 11 per cent higher than in 1935-39 period.