

SALUDA NEWS

By Julia Ann Johnson

Mrs. Richard Thompson, chairman of the Tuberculosis Seal Sale for 1950 announces the opening of sales Nov. 20th. Seals are on sale in all grades in school and down town at the Electric Appliance Store, drug store, and L. L. Clippard's office. Mrs. L. L. Clippard, president of the P.-T. A. and Mrs. Richard Thompson have them for sale also at their homes. Mrs. Thompson has been chairman of this tuberculosis seal sale for many years and always does a fine job of it.

Spurgeon Arledge, our Duke Power man, is now taking his vacation.

Mrs. May Hipp Robertson, who moved here from Delaware last week, has rented the small cottage on Laurel Drive formerly the Viner cottage.

The Saluda High School is publishing a school newspaper—the name is "Saluda Leaves". It is published quarterly. The first issue was published the month of Nov. The staff is as follows: Editor-in-chief, Alex Salley; assistant editor, Joe Stephenson; art editor, Jimmy Pace; associate editors include Doris Ashley, Betty Jo Pace, Lucille Stephenson, Julia Ann Johnson, and James Brown; typists, Dorothy Saltz, Jennie Arledge, and Orvaley Pace. The faculty advisor is Mrs. Lowndes.

Mrs. R. L. Newman has returned from St. Luke's Hospital in Tryon and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Simp Thompson.

Ballenger's

BASKETBALL SHOES

Men's and Women's

ALL SIZES

- AT -

BALLENGER'S

TRYON, N. C.

TRYON THEATRE

Matinees—Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Saturday

Tuesday, Nov. 28—Kathryn Grayson and Mario Lanz in
"TOAST OF NEW ORLEANS"

Plus: Cavalcade of New York Short

Wed., Thurs., Nov. 29, 30—Randolph Scott, Gabby Hayes in
"THE CARIBO TRAIL"

Plus: March of Times and Dancing Shoes.

Friday, Dec. 1—Jackie Robinson and Ruby Dee in
"THE JACKIE ROBINSON STORY"

Saturday, Dec. 2—Jimmy Wakely and Cannonball Taylor in
"ROARING WESTWARD"

Plus: Comedy and Serial.