

LANDRUM NEWS NOTES

Miss Sara Jeanette Austin, daughter of Samuel Leonard Austin and the late Mrs. Austin of Landrum, and Roy Arnold Solesbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward James Solesbee, of Wellford, were married at the home of the bride on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 23, at 4, with the Rev. Ansel Pruitt of the Jackson Mill Baptist Church officiating.

The bride and bridegroom entered together and spoke their vows before an arrangement of ferns, ivy and tall baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Candles in 7-branched candelabra were lighted by Marvin Arthur Woodward Jr. of Aiken, nephew of the bride.

Mrs. Charles J. Stover furnished the wedding music.

Mrs. Solesbee is a teacher of home economics in the Campobello High School. Mr. Solesbee, a veteran of World War II, is employed with Jackson Mills, Wellford, where the couple will make their home.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Solesbee, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hawkins of Wellford, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Woodward and sons, Austin and Woody of Aiken; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Solesbee of Inman, and Miss Annie Sevier of Rock Hill.
