

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON BULLETIN

James, Miss Elizabeth 9 Oct 51

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 23—No. 221) TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1950

Weather Friday: High 50, low 30, humidity. 48. Saturday high 46, low 32, humidity .86; Sunday high 42, low 31, humidity 61, and a few snow flurries . . . Christmas leaves for service men have been cancelled for many and the Home Friendly Club is leaving addresses in some of the Tryon stores for the benefit of those who wish to send Christmas cards to the service men . . . Donations to the Fireman's Christmas tree fund may be left with Chief Walter Roach at the Police Station. Chairman W. W. Creasman is eager to know how much money will be raised in order to know how many children to make happy. All children, white and colored under 10 years will receive candy and fruit. Over 1,000 are expected here on Wednesday, Dec. 20 . . . Congratulations to Tryon Civic leaders, Riding & Hunt Club on successfully patting on the big Triple Sports event . . . The Spartanburg Herald reports marriage of Nelson Ray Ayers, Campobello and Betty Lee Nodine, Landrum.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. W. H. (Minnie) Durham of Ballenger's fell Saturday and broke her arm. She is in St. Luke's Hospital for treatment. Other patients include Ted Welker, Tryon; Emma Hayden, Mill Spring; Lillie

Continued on Back Page

TRIPLE SPORTS EVENT ATTRACTS VISITORS HERE

Tryon's Trade Street was decorated this past week-end with the colorful flags of the Hunt teams from Camden, Sedgefield, Shakerag of Atlanta and the Tryon Hounds, as added color to a festive occasion inaugurating in this section the first triple sports event—Hunter Trials, Bench Show and Field Trials.

Approximately 200 visitors from all over the South were present for one or more of the parties and programs.

The festivities started Friday evening with a cocktail party and dinner at Chinquapin Farm with Mrs. Ernst Mahler as hostess.

On Saturday noon following the Bench Show at Fancy Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Carter P. Brown were hosts at a hot luncheon for the out-of-town guests and members of the Riding & Hunt Club.

Saturday night at the Auberge a Dutch Treat cocktail party and dinner were given sponsored by the Riding & Hunt Club. About 90 guests were present. The number being reduced on account of the death of Mr. Elsas of Atlanta.

Favorable comments were made by many visitors concerning the show. Mrs. David Hedekin, noted horsewoman of Atlanta, secretary of the Shakerag Hounds, stated that Fancy Hills was the most appropriate place for the Hunter Trials that she had ever seen. Delmar Twyman of Durham, acting as judge in place of Lowry Watkins of Louisville, Ky., who was snowbound, stated that he was fortunate in being able to judge the event; that he had never seen a finer lot of hunters. There were

Continued on Page Two