

AT THE CHURCHES

Continued on Back Page.

day at 7 p. m.

Episcopal: The Church of the Holy Cross. Sunday, 8 a. m., Holy Communion; 9:40 a. m., church school; 11 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 3:30 p. m., church school Christmas service; 8 p. m., Confirmation Service, Rt. Rev. M. George Henry, D.D. Thursday, 10:30 a. m., Holy Communion, St. Thomas, Apostle.

Freewill Baptist: Sunday school 10 a. m. Preaching every second and fourth Sunday mornings and evenings. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:30. Rev. George Flynn, Pastor. There will be four groups of special singers Sunday evening at 7.

St. Luke C. M. E. Church: Rev. W. P. Williams, Pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m., J. D. Waymon, Supt. Worship service 11:30. Theme: "The Call of Christ." League at 6:30 p. m. Sermon 7 p. m. Theme: "Saints in Wrong Places."

Troy Durham Appointed New County Commissioner

Troy Durham of Green's Creek Township, has been appointed a member of the Polk County Board of County Commissioners to fill the unexpired term of E. A. Westbrook, who has been elected State Senator.

Mr. Durham, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Durham, is a veteran of World War II, and is now employed by Adams-Mill's Corp. He is married and is the father of three children. Mr. Durham was recommended for the office by the Polk County Democratic Executive Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ward will have as guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Beaver of China Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Scott of Charlotte.

Fostoria Punch Bowl and Cups for rent for all parties.
Make your reservation now.
Blue Ridge Weavers.—Adv.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Ansell Lavender of Campobello, S. C., are parents of a daughter born Thursday morning at St. Luke's Hospital.

Mrs. John Gibson of Columbus has returned to the hospital. Patients discharged include Ted Welker, Mrs. Mary E. Markley of Philadelphia and Jo Anne Constance of Columbus.

Mrs. Grace MacDonald of St. Petersburg, Fla., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tom Cooksey, and family at the Peanut Shell on Godshaw Hill.

H. M. Huxley leaves Sunday for a week's visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. "Lefty" Flynn of Camden, S. C., will spend the week-end in Tryon with friends.

Mrs. F. H. Jordan, who recently returned from Paris, France, is a guest at Oak Hall.

Mrs. C. Arthur Lincoln is leaving this week-end for Schenectady, N. Y., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ted Bates and family.

Among the college students already home or coming in this week-end are Jim Baker, Tom Moore, Ligon Flynn, Raymond Anderson, Loyd Comer, of State College in Raleigh; Carroll Brady, Miss Mary Sanders, Erwin Hester, John M. Guilbert and Miss Helen Brundage from University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. In order to help make up parties and entertainments friends and relatives having college students or other visitors here for the holidays can help the community a lot by writing or telephoning their guests to The Bulletin as soon as possible.

The Lake Lanier Drive-In Theatre will show "Saigon" on Sunday night, starring Alan Ladd and Donna Reed.—Adv. n.c.

A very special gift would be the New Blenko Lamps with the most attractive shades to match. Something to glow for a long time after Christmas. Blue Ridge Weavers.—Adv.