

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETINThe World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor
(Vol. 23—No. 241) TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1951

Weather Monday: High 40, low 23, rel. hum. 41 . . . Eighth Army continues retreat in Korea. President Truman in a radio speech to the nation Monday said that America would fight Russia if necessary to prevent the conquest of the world by the Soviets. He said all free nations are exposed and in danger . . . Club Reporter for the Lions Club says, "A good golfer and a good Lion member have one thing in common: Both throw a lot of their weight behind their club." . . . The Erskine Congregational Church annual supper meeting will be held tonight at 7 o'clock at the Church House . . . Dr. Edmund M. Wylie, was the chief speaker on Monday night at the annual meeting of the Daniel Boone Council Boy Scouters banquet. He emphasized the importance of adults giving young people guidance and the benefit of their experience . . . A. R. Eldred of Clementon, N. J., the first Boy Scout to attain the Eagle rank, in 1912, died January 5th at his home. He was a graduate of Cornell University and served in the Navy in World War I. He was a railroad executive and leader in civic affairs . . .

Good weather is predicted for the Carolinas for the next few days.

Friendship Group Meets

The Friendship Group of the Tryon First Baptist Church will meet Thursday night at 7 at the church. Each member will bring one dish of food for the supper. Jim Gibson will be the chief speaker and will talk about "Money".

HOSPITAL NEWS

New patients over the week-end at St. Luke's Hospital include Mrs. Hortense Adams, Tryon; Lindsey Smith, Columbus; John Higgins, Landrum; Walter Arledge, Lynn; Robert Painter, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Painter, R-1, Landrum; Dewey Huggins, Wofford College student; Ann De Carmefi 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George De Carme of Landrum, who was injured Monday afternoon when struck by an automobile. Two colored patients: Paul Miller and Albert Murry of Mill Spring, who were injured in an auto accident Sunday.

Patients discharged include Mrs. Joe D. Kerby of Tryon; Cecil Galloway, Tryon; M. G. Christopher, Landrum; Mrs. Richard Green and daughter, Ann, of Tryon; Mrs. Carter Wilkie Brown; Mrs. Alan Calhoun and daughter, Amelia Nickels; Mrs. J. C. Whitesides and son, David Allen; Larry Cochran, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cochran. Colored patients included Jason Booker, Lynn and Mrs. Jessie Wingo and baby daughter, Carolyn Dianne.

LIONS MEET TONIGHT

Tryon Lions Club will meet tonight at Oak Hall for supper and to hear a program presented by Mr. and Mrs. Homer G. Anderson.