

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 24—No. 7) TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, FEB. 8TH, 1951

Weather Wednesday: High 47, low 31, rain 1.63, Rel. Hum. 56.

... Allied tanks and artillery driving Reds back in Korea . . . Number of deaths in New Jersey train wreck listed at 83 . . . Former President Herbert Hoover is helping Truman give relief to India. Hoover said America has always helped the starving people in all parts of the world as an act of Christianity . . . The WSCS of the Tryon Methodist Church have announced they will hold their annual Food and Easter Egg Sale, March 24th. at the Ballenger Co. . . . Listen tomorrow to Murrow at 9 p. m. when he gives a special broadcast of one hour over CBS "Hear It Now" network program. Friday, Feb. 9th.

... Tonight at 7:45 is the Duplicate Bridge Tournament at the Congregational Church . . . The Eastern Star Chapter of Tryon is sponsoring a Valentine Party, February 14th at Rook's Skating Rink. The Eastern Star is the largest organization of its kind in the world. It helps furnish a home for the aged in Greensboro, N. C., and has a scholarship fund to help worthy students; it helps support a hospital for the aged and a camp for young girls. All visiting Eastern Star members are invited to meet with the local

Continued on Back Page

BRANTLEY'S FEE BILL NOW LAW FOR POLK

Magistrates in Polk County got a break Wednesday when the State Senate favored Representative Brantley's bill calling for more fees for justices in the county.

Representative Brantley introduced the bill in the House about a month ago. It became law after senate approval. The new law will become effective in March.

The new fees which will be collected by the justices in Polk County are as follows:

Warrants, $1.25; subpoenas, 25c each; commitment, $1.00; recognizance (making bond), $1.00; judgment contested, $3.00; judgment not contested, $2.00; affidavit for removal, 50c; order of removal, 50c; continuance, 50c.

Besides the above fees the justices must collect $2.00 for officers retirement fund on each criminal procedure.

A PENNEY AT ROTARY

Thomas J. Hair will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall and will have as guest speaker, Miss Edith Penney, former principal of the Bronxville, N. Y. High School and an authority on modern education. She will speak on some phase of education.

About 80 people attended the movies of the Riding & Hunt Club activities shown at Pine-Crest Inn Wednesday night. The scenes included the Hunter Trials, Bench Show and Field Trials held here on Dec. 9th, the first event of its kind ever held it is reported. Coffee and doughnuts were served by the Inn to those present.