(Vol. 24—No. 8) TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1951

Weather Thursday: High 40, low 16, Rel. Hum. 35 . . . A beautiful snow began falling about 7:30 this morning and has continued all morning, but the air is not so cold and all the school children who were let out are having a good time. Roads are dangerous and many cars without chains were skidding about on the street. School buses were equipped with chains in order to take the children home safely . . . The Bird Dog Field Trials scheduled for Saturday at Screven Lower Pasture has been postponed until next Saturday on account of the snow. Should the snow belt today officials state that the grounds would be in no condition to permit the event to be held. . . . Ed Murrow will be on the radio tonight in a special broadcast from 9 to 10 o'clock, WSPA, Spartanburg, 950 on your regular dial. The FM number is 98.9 . . . Mrs. A. W. Brintnall of the Tryon Bird Club urges everyone to scatter bird seed, bread crumbs under bushes and places for the birds to eat while the snow is on the ground, and to keep all feeding stations filled. The snow has covered their natural feeding places . . . Lady Astor has arrived in the United States for a visit with her sisters, according to news in the big dailies.
