THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 24—No. 10) TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, FEB. 13TH, 1951

Weather Monday: High 70, low 26, Rel. Hum. 55 . . . Yesterday, Feb. 12th nearly all the nation honored Abraham Lincoln, not so much as a president, but for the high ideals he held up for all the world to follow; and for his courage and compassion . . . Mrs. Martha Barr, County Librarian of Rutherford County, drove over to Tryon Monday to buy two Sketches of Polk County, by Sadie S. Patton. Every school in Polk County should have a copy of this book. As the number printed was small, those desiring to get these books should do so at once . . . Mrs. Robert L. Camp of Tryon Route 1 died Friday and was buried Sunday afternoon at 3. . . Plans are all set for the Bird Dog Field Trials Saturday at lower Screven Pasture. Among the dog owners entering dogs are Burley Durham, Rev. A. C. Martin, Wiley White, Grady Ross, E. R. Hines, Ralph Cochran, Senator E. A. Westbrook, Clyde Hines, Horace Newman, Ernest Kerhulas, Dr. M. C. Palmer, Birch Arledge, Jervey Durham, Dr. John Z. Preston . . . New patients entered at St. Luke's Hospital include Miss Lillian Mines, Mrs. Percy Lorie, Hendersonville; Miss Caroline H. Fabens, and G. E. Wilson. Patients discharged include Mrs. Chas. E.
