

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 24—No. 12) TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, FEB. 15TH, 1951

Weather Wednesday: High 77, low 1. . . . Next to traveling abroad is the enjoyment of hearing friends tell about their travels and seeing pictures of what they saw. Tonight at 8 o'clock at the Tryon school P.-T. A., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burwell will show pictures of some of the interesting things they saw in Europe this past summer Last night the Lanier Library had 8 tables of bridge and 3 of Canasta, played for the benefit of the Library. There were other parties held in homes for the same benefit . . . Also the Skyuka Chapter of Eastern Star had a Valentine party at Rook's Skating Rink which drew a large crowd of skaters, square dancers and canasta players. Refreshments were served. Miss Jane Brown won the door prize and Byron Rector the guessing contest The New York Times of Friday mentioned in a headline that a New Yorker won second place in the first day's session of Life Master Bridge Players in the World Championship Contract Bridge Tournament at Hotel La Salle. The reason the first place winner was not in the headlines was because he was not a New Yorker. He was James C. Jackson of Tryon. Jackson had 237 points and his partner, the New Yorker, had 231.
