

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN*The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor*

(Vol. 24—No. 21) TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 28th, 1951

Weather Tuesday: High 78, low 59, Rel. Hum. 53 . . . U. N. progressing in Korea . . . Sanitarian Melville Powell states that the report about typhoid fever being in the county was an error. Hasn't been any here in two years, he says . . . Landrum Civic League is all set for "Going Places" on Thursday and Friday at Landrum Grammar School . . . Tryon Congregational Fellowship Group meets Friday night for supper at 6:30 at the church parlor. Dr. Mary Warfield will lead a round-table discussion of care and rearing of children. Each member is requested to bring in written questions for discussion . . . Tonight is bridge and canasta night at Lanier Library . . . Last Friday at Rotary, Miss Frances Knapenberger, a cousin of Mrs. George W. Whitehead, gave an interesting talk on Arabia. Miss Knapenberger is an accountant with the Arabia Oil Co., at Sudi where she has been for the past two and a half years. Prior to that she was with Standard Oil and Texas Oil Co. She talked about the customs and the people and the interesting life lived there. One 30-inch oil pipe at Sudi is 1,100 miles long and goes 8 miles out into the sea to reach sea-going ships. While here Miss

*Continued on Back PageParents and Cubs Have Blue and Gold Dinner

The Cub Scouts of Tryon Pack 1, met in the Congregational Church House Monday night for a dinner meeting. The dinner was cooked and served by Den Mothers, Mrs. John McGuinn, Mrs. John L. Shields, Mrs. Herbert Butler, Mrs. Ralph Farthing and Mrs. Arthur Reynolds. Butler's Dairy contributed the ice cream.

A flag was presented to Den 3 for the best achievement record during 1950 and awards were made as follows:

Victor Turner, Roy Dean Whiteside, lion; Benny Smith, bear; Henry Smith, Donny Farthing, James McCain, wolf; Jimmy Shields, Bobby Lawrence, Danny Edwards, Billy Butler, John McGuinn, David Martin, Billy McCall, wolf gold; Philip Pack, bob cat.

Henry Bartol, Cubmaster, explained the importance of having each Cub parent participate in these meetings and plans are now being worked out for the formation of a new den.

Mill Spring Ruritans To Hear Ex-Steel Executive

The Mill Spring Ruritan Club will have a ladies' night program Thursday and will have as guest speaker, George W. Whitehead, retired steel executive from Buffalo, N. Y., who is now making his home here. Mr. Whitehead will tell how steel is made and some of the uses for it.

Charlie Cochran of the U. S. Marines is home for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cochran.