THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1951

Weather Wednesday: High 68, low 51, Rel. Hum. 58 . . . U. N. continue march in Korea. Labor leaders are withdrawing support of National Defense program . . . Tryon First Baptist Brotherhood will meet Friday at 7 p. m., at the church with Robert Millikin in charge of the program . . . The Tryon Chamber of Commerce has so many worthwhile projects underway that it is hard to keep up with them. One of the most important is the making of a map of the community, by H. M. Guilbert of the Toy Shop. It will give the principal streets in the community and individuals can complete them to suit their desires . . . Much interest is being created in the Clean-Up Campaign . . . Tryon High School girls lost their tournament game 52 to 19 at Hendersonville instead of the 552 as reported . . . Plans are complete for the Any and All Dog Show Saturday at 2:30 at Harmon Field. A three months old Boston Terrier named "Beanie" will be entered from Chinquapin Farm, it is reported. . . . Mr. and Mrs. John Harvey of Chicago are expected this week-end at their Columbus home, Tippytoe, the former T. J. McDowell house which they bought sometime ago. Mrs. Harvey's father, Eli Latham, 86, died on Feb.

THE EYES HAVE IT AT LIONS CLUB MEETING

Dr. Gordon Graham, Tryon optometrist, was the speaker at the Lions Club Tuesday night and gave an outline of the development of reading glasses during the past 50 years.

Dr. Graham told of the importance of good vision for school children. He said one needs to learn to see as well as learn to walk. Glasses are needed for comfort, correction of eyes and efficiency in work.

Joe Stockton had charge of the program.

SALUDA NEWS

By Julia Ann Johnson

The Saluda Book Club met on Tuesday, Feb. 27. with Mrs. L. L. Clippard. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Fred Walters, who introduced the visiting speakers, Mrs. John S. Forrest and Mrs. Arnstien, both of Hendersonville. Mrs. Forrest gave the highlights of the National Federation meeting which she attended in Miami, Fla., recently. Mrs. Arnstien gave a talk on collecting books and magazines to send overseas. Mrs. Arnstien is the chairman of this work in this district. The next meeting will be held March 13 at Camp Bear Walla with Mrs. Fred Walters. Visiting guests at the meeting were Mrs. Baxter Moore and daughter, Ann, and Mrs. Archie Covington. A salad course was enjoyed during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Holbert of Tryon visited Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Holbert Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Thomson have announced the birth of a baby boy, born Tuesday, Feb.
