THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 24—No. 18) TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1951

Weather Wednesday: High 76, low 57, rain .87, rel. Hum. 72 . . . Tonight (Thursday) is Tryon night at the Hendersonville First Presbyterian Church where Dr. Cecil Thompson of the Theological Seminary is conducting a series of meetings at 7:30 each night. Between 30 and 40 Tryon friends are planning to attend . . . Tonight is also Duplicate Bridge night at the Congregational Church at 7:45. . . Ann Going and Sara Jane Ballew, who were seriously injured last fall in the auto-train collision, have been back at school now for sometime. Many friends have asked about them from time to time . . . U. N. forces push ahead in Korea . . . St. Luke's Hospital gratefully acknowledges a contribution to its memorial fund in memory of Aunt Phebe Andrews. . . . One of the nicest ways people can show their appreciation of one another is to give memorial gifts to a hospital . . . This spring weather is putting the urge in everyone to clean up and paint up. It's going on all over the nation. That advertisement of R. H. Brady points out another valuable point in the clean-up campaign. A clean place is in less danger of catching fire. The Duke Power ad Wednesday emphasized the value of more light in a cleaner place that has been painted. . . .

$100 WEEK GOAL

"In maintaining the high morale of the American Army, the Red Cross must play an important part," says General of the Army George C. Marshall, Secretary of Defense.

"As our armed forces are increased in numbers, the work of the Red Cross for servicemen and their families and for hospitalized veterans must be correspondingly increased," said General Marshall. "And in addition, we are called on to coordinate the procurement of blood for all the armed services.

"The Red Cross has been called on to recruit and train 250,000 volunteer nurses' aids; hundreds of thousands of housewives in home nursing; and twenty million men and women in first aid work. That involves a tremendous organized effort in which every one of us must play a part.

"These new responsibilities have been accepted by the Red Cross as a necessary obligation, a duty. This is the time for positive action. When you are asked to take part and to contribute, I feel sure that you will do so generously. Our country needs the Red Cross and the Red Cross requires our support."

The campaign to raise $5,200 in Polk County is now underway. 35 canvassers are hard at work calling on everyone. Because of the 40% increase over last year's goal, larger contributions are required. More than two thirds of the $5,200 goal will remain in Polk County.

Contributions may be sent to the Tryon Bank & Trust Co. Checks should be made out to the Red Cross. Membership cards and buttons will be sent those contributing more than the $1 membership fee.
