

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MAIL, AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 24—No. 23) TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 1951

Weather Tuesday: High 44, low 35, rain .92, Rel. Hum. 83 . . Nelson Jackson gave a talk at Kiwanis Tuesday and showed motion pictures portraying the work of a hospital. Mr. Jackson told what St. Luke's Hospital had meant to him in saving his life on account of the well-equipped hospital being within a few miles of his home. A. L. Covington had charge of the program. Guests included Dr. McCall's brother, Clyde, student at the dental school at University of North Carolina and J. W. Ivey of Spartanburg. Enoch Prather on behalf of the club presented past presidents Chas. J. Lynch and R. H. Brady with gold lapel buttons in appreciation of their services to the club . . . Betty Sturgis Shop is having Open House this afternoon from 2 to 5 with models wearing the new spring fashions. As a public service the Betty Sturgis Shop sent out an announcement of the coming events in Tryon and a list of the hotels and inns where guests could get luncheon and even offered to make reservations . . . Elsie, the most natural artificial cow in captivity is at Cowan's Super Market for the Grand Opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The life size cow is constantly going through all the motions of chewing her
Continued on Back Page

MILHAUPT ANNOUNCES CLEAN UP LEADERS

Chairman Leo Milhaupt of the Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up drive, has plans well underway for a successful campaign. Mrs. J. A. Simpson, chairman of the Roadside Improvement Committee of the Garden Club, and J. A. Simpson of the Men's Garden Club, asked to handle the part of the program in which the school children participate, have that well organized. R. C. Burnett, president of the Rotary, and Miss Jane Brown, will handle photography with Miss Brown taking "before and after" pictures of strategic area; Elbert H. Arledge, president of Kiwanis, in charge of publicity of campaign; W. M. Ballew, representing the Lions and as chairman of the Merchants' Committee, will aid in getting the merchants lined up, Birch Arledge, assistant fire chief, in charge of inspections for fire hazards, B. B. Flynn, assures support of the Scouts, and Laxton Hamrick, the support of the school.

Mr. Milhaupt, after meeting with the Town Officials, on Monday night, at their regular meeting, was assured the full support of the town manager and the councilmen. Mayor Clement D. Stevens said he thought everyone should join in this campaign and make it a success. The town agreed to underwrite the expense of hiring additional men to work on the pick-up trucks, also to pay necessary expense in having those benches on Chestnut Street repaired. Leonard C. Porter has been asked to do this.

Prizes are being awarded the school children for their part in the drive. The Garden Club is
Continued on Back Page