THURSTON LITES TODAY

Miss Edith Moultrie Thurston, a native of Charleston, but for over a quarter of a century a resident of Tryon, died here early Sunday morning. Funeral services were held Monday morning at 11:30 at the Church of the Holy Cross, Episcopal, with Father James Sill officiating. Burial was in Tryon cemetery with McFarland Funeral Home in charge.

Pallbearers were F. P. Bacon, John G. Landrum Jr., John S. Blackwell, George Holmes, W. W. Creasman and the Rev. Chas. L. McGavern.

Miss Thurston was a retired school teacher and at one time had a private school in Tryon. She also taught at the Cedar Spring Institute for many years.

Even after retirement she continued her interest in civic affairs.
