

ZEB COVIL

Zeb Covil, 47, passed away at his home in Granite Falls, N. C., early today.

Mr. Covil was a son of the late William W. and Dovie Cochran Covil and a native of Polk County. He made his home here until several years ago, when he moved to Hickory to go into business.

The deceased is survived by one brother, Frank Covil, of Lincolnton; and two sisters, Mrs. Will Conner and Mrs. Taft Hudson of Lynn.

Funeral services will probably be at the Pacolet Baptist church in Lynn on Sunday. Interment will be in Tryon Cemetery.

CREASMAN FOR MAYOR

Wayne W. Creasman, Tryon builder, has announced for Mavor of Tryon in the municipal election to be held in May.

Mr. Creasman said:

"In announcing myself as candidate for mayor of Tryon in the coming Town election, I do so only with the thought of being of service to our town.

"The business affairs of the town are run by the commisisoners.

"If elected as mayor, I shall endeavor to administer all ordinances of the town without fear or favor.

"The town has made wonderful progress under past administrations, I hope to see this same progress continue."

Mr. Creasman is electrical inspector for the Town of Tryon, U. S. official weather observer, and is a member of the Tryon Fire Department. He served many years as justice of the peace and superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school and has been active in other civic affairs.

PAGE—BUCKNER

Miss Mitchell June Buckner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis O. Buckner of Lynn and Gerald Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Page of Landrum will be married Saturday evening at 6:30 in Spartanburg at the home of Chester A. Honeycutt, minister of the Church of Christ in Tryon.

Only immediate members of the two families will be present at the double ring ceremony. The couple will make their home in Tryon following the wedding trip.
