

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 24—No. 65) TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 11TH, 1951

Weather Thursday: High 85, low 47, Rel. Hum. 59. . . Remember Mother Sunday, especially your own mother; but a good word to all mothers will spread a lot of happiness. They talk about the Scouts being a man's organization, but it is the mother who coaxes the boy to study and make advancement. They talk about the "Faith of Our Fathers", but the mothers are the ones who dress the children and take them to Sunday school and teach them the faith. So for Mother's sake, start a revival in your own soul and make mother proud of you on Sunday.

. . . . If you haven't paid last year's town taxes, your name will be advertised beginning Monday, May 14th, as a delinquent. The State law requires that taxes to be sold in June must be advertised in May. . . . James E. Johnson has resigned as a member of the Polk County Selective Service Board. . . . Dr. Cecil Thompson of Decatur, Ga., who is conducting a revival at Spartanburg Presbyterian Church, visited friends in Tryon Thursday while enroute from Montreat. . . . Recent arrivals at Melrose Lodge include Miss Mabel F. Bray, Trenton, N. J.; Mrs. J. L. R. Morgan, Clarmont, N. J.; Mrs. C. D. Holmes, Mystic, Conn.; Miss Mary M. Melcher, Chicago; Mrs. Florence F. Swann,
