Vol. 24—No. 91 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JUNE 18TH, 1951

Weather Friday: High 84, low 60; Rel. Hum. 66; Saturday high 78, low 60, rain .07, Rel Hum. 85; Sunday high 68, low 62, rain 2.28, Rel Hum. 92 . . . Tryon continue to improve in cleanliness. A lot of people will have to be reminded to throw their ice cream cartons, paper cups, cigaret wrappers, empty envelopes into the trash containers on the streets. When the policemen see merchants sweeping their sidewalks a reminder to put the trash in the container will be a far towards keeping the streets clean. They are washed and swept every morning now. Merchants, of all people, are interested in keeping the streets clean for visitors and customers. Favorable comment has been heard on the cooperation of the people in observing the one hour parking law. It seems that most people don't want the parking meters if it can be prevented. . . . The big bridge tournament at Oak Hall this coming Saturday should attract at least 102 players from the two Carolinas . . . Vacation Maps of the Blue Ridge and Great Smokies have arrived at Missildine's and Owen's Pharmacies and will be at other places soon. These maps are put out by the Western North Carolina Tourist Associa-

Safety Meeting At Kiwanis

Lieut. William Hunt of Asheville, executive officer of this district for the State Highway Patrol, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis Club Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. He will discuss various phases of the safety program for state highways. Harold Griffith will be in charge of the program.

TRYON MEN 1 IN A 100

Of the 297 air force officers out of 2,800 applications, given permanent rank in the regular service by Presidential nominations, three of them were from Tryon. In a list published by a Pacific Coast newspaper were the names of second lieutenants Richard M. McClure, George D. Cooksey Jr., and Distinguished Cadet Wm. T. Capers III. McClure and Cooksey have temporary rank of first lieutenant.

Family of Army Officer To Live In Tryon

Maj. Don Preston Peters Jr., Mrs. Peters and children, Peg and Pete, of Travis Army Field Base, Fairfield, Calif., were the guests of Mrs. Peters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Sowards, while enroute to their home in Lynchburg, Va. Major Peters, a flight surgeon, who has been assigned overseas duty, left Sunday, by plane, for the point from which he will fly to the area of his new assignment.

During their brief stay, they were so well sold on Tryon that Mrs. Peters and the children, will take a house, and remain here during the absence of Major Peters.
