Over a week ago Joseph LaBrie and Vincent Irving of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Tryon for an overnight stop enroute to the mountains farther to the northeast. It was hot when they arrived at the Chamber of Commerce office. They spent the night at Oak Hall and took a look around the city and decided to stay another day. Each day brought out new interests and enthusiasm. Both have traveled extensively in America and Europe. They were quick to see the charms of the community and today Mr. LaBrie is celebrating his 80th birthday. He was out pitching horse shoes this morning at Oak Hall hotel, and the hotel is arranging a party for him with birthday cake, etc. Mr. LaBrie was born in Paris, France, July 2, 1871 and came to Canada with his mother when he was about five years old. The family later moved to Kansas City. When he grew up he represented the Kansas City Southern Railroad and bought 50,000 acres of land including the present site of Port Arthur, Texas.
