Vol. 24—No. 108 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JULY 9TH, 1951

Weather Friday: High 85, low 62, Rel. Hum. 60; Saturday high 87, low 50, Rel. Hum. 75; Sunday high 88, low 52, Rel. Hum. 65. No wonder it was so cold over the week-end. It was just 18 degrees above freezing Saturday. And this in July Job open here for a college student interested in textiles Jean Hersey, New York author, who is teaching at Huckleberry Mountain Workshop near Hendersonville, will be overnight guest of the Vinings. Mrs. John Fuldner and Mrs. A. W. Brintnall are among Tryon exhibitors at the 4th Annual Craftsman's Fair at Asheville July 10 to 15. Folk dancing, music, and fine examples from 24 fields of arts and crafts will be exhibited by the Southern Highland Handicraft Guild, a non-profit enterprise whose purpose is to preserve the traditional and encourage originality The Asheville Citizen overlooked the name of Erwin Hester on the dean list of the University of North Carolina the other day, because he was listed as being from Troy, N. C. The Charlotte Observer used it because Troy is in its sphere of influence Tryon Merchants are expressing their appreciation of the way the officers are checking on the parking situation. Business
